TRACKER 2
SLIDE THE FRUIT, WITH A CRATE TRAY

Each piece sits in a box that says how fresh it is and slides one box left each night, as on the market mat. What is new: your crate is a loose tray. At the bell the whole tray comes out, so no piece is carried and every piece is already on its letter.

PRINT AND CUT

- Stall sheet (page 2, A4): one for each stall.
- Crate trays (page 3, two to a page; print it three times for six stalls): cut out one for each stall. Card is best.
- Keep the market mat, your fruit pieces, shutters, price tags, counters (for cash) and all the cards.

SET UP

Stand your shutter in front of your stall sheet. Lay your tray on the dashed bay, so that its boxes line up with the shelf boxes behind it.

A DAY

1. Morning. Unload the lorry onto the market mat, as now.
2. Buy. Put the piece in the shelf box with the same letter and place as the box it left on the market mat. New fruit lands in the right-hand box of its row. Fruit from earlier days is already further left.
3. Stock. Behind your shutter, slide the pieces you want to sell straight forward from a shelf box onto the tray box in line with it. Green fruit cannot go on the tray. A piece left on the tray from yesterday may stay or slide back.
4. Pricing. Lay each price tag face down on the tray, beside its fruit.
5. Bell. Flip your tags and slide the whole tray out in front of your shutter. Every piece is on its own letter.
6. Rush. Sell as now. The oldest piece that is fresh enough goes first: that is the one furthest left.
7. After the rush. Pull the tray back onto its bay. Unsold pieces stay on the tray. Wipe your tags.
8. Night. Every piece on your tray and your shelf, and on the market mat, slides one box left. A piece that leaves the S box is thrown away (a Juice Bar juices up to two of them).

SPECIAL NIGHTS AND CARDS

- Heatwave: two boxes left. Monsoon Downpour: nothing slides.
- Shade Cloth: Pak Din's pieces of the named fruit do not slide tonight.
- Fridge: move each of your ripe pieces one box right, but never past the right-most F of its fruit. Green pieces stay.
- Health Inspector: count your pieces in S boxes.

What to watch in the test: did anyone miss a slide, or slide twice, behind the shutter? Did the tray stay in line with the shelf? Was the crate easy to read at the bell?
